

Homecoming week

It's Homecoming 2006 at New Braunfels High School this week. There are many activities, including a community candlelight pep rally at Unicorn Stadium on Thursday, Oct. 5 around 8 p.m. (dusk). The homecoming football game is Friday, Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m. at Unicorn Stadium against Del Valle. The high school dance will be Saturday, Oct. 7 from 8 p.m. to midnight. For more information about Homecoming activities, contact student council sponsor Julie Estes at jestes@newbraunfels.txed.net. For football ticket information, call the field house at 830-627-6111.

Fun Family Activity

Check the NBISD Master Calendar for a complete daily listing of activities:
www.newbraunfels.txed.net

Early release

Remember early release days on Wednesday, Oct. 4 and Thursday, October 5 for parent-teacher conferences at the elementary campuses and staff development at the secondary campuses. All secondary campuses (NBHS, NBMS, OakRun) will release at noon. All elementary campuses will release at 12:30 p.m.

Growth in numbers

New Braunfels ISD reports 7,058 students in the district. How does your child's campus add up? Here are recent numbers:

- New Braunfels High School – 1,939 (620 freshmen; 485 sophomores; 472 juniors; 362 seniors)
- New Braunfels Middle School – 1,092 seven and eighth graders
- OakRun Sixth Grade Center – 523
- Memorial Intermediate (3rd-5th) – 655
- Memorial Elementary (1st-3rd) – 587
- Memorial Primary (Pre-K-1st) – 587
- Lone Star Elementary (1st-2nd) – 422
- Lamar Primary (Pre-K-1st) – 415
- Seele Elementary (4th-5th) – 389
- Carl Schurz Elementary (Pre-K-5th) – 369
- The Learning Center (Alternative Campus) – 80

Basketball champ

Chantelle Anderson, professional basketball player for the San Antonio Silver Stars, helped to kick off the Area 13 Special Olympics Bocce Competition hosted at New Braunfels High School recently. The athletes are now being featured on the Channel 19 news show.