

Working Bibliography & Works Cited

You must show where you found all your information to avoid plagiarism and to prove your facts come from valid sources. Use the MLA documentation style below in developing your:

1. Working bibliography – a record of all sources used in your research.
2. Works cited – a list of all sources that you cite in the text of your paper.

Print Sources

BOOK: Author(s). Title. City of publication: Publisher, Date.

Parker, Derek and Julia Barker. Atlas of the Supernatural. New York: Prentice Hall, 1990.

CHART, MAP, OR POSTER: Title. Map, chart, or poster. City of publication: Publisher, Date.

The Solar System. Poster. Palo Alto: Dale Seymour Publications, 1997.

ENCYCLOPEDIA AND REFERENCE BOOKS: Author(if given) or editor (ed.). "Title of article." Title of book or publication. edition year.

Pope, Clifford. "Crocodile." Encyclopedia Americana. 1994 ed.

MAGAZINE: Author(s). "Title of article." Name of magazine. Date: Page numbers.

Satchell, Michael. "To Save the Sequoias." U.S News and World Report. 7 Oct. 1996: 42-46.

NEWSPAPER: Author. "Title of article." Name of Newspaper [City if not part of name] Date, edition (if listed): Page(s).

Murphy, Sean. "It Floats." Rockingham News [Exeter] 21 May 1999, late ed.: A1+.

PAMPHLET: Same style as book

Non-Print Sources

FIELD TRIP: Site. Location. Attending Group. Date.

Longfellow-Evangeline State Commemorative Area. St. Martinville, LA. Grade 6, Maplewood Middle School. 13 March 1997.

INTERVIEW: Person interviewed. Type of interview (personal, telephone. . .). Date.

Parsons, Mary. Telephone interview. 30 May 1998.